Introducing The Ledger

Welcome to the introductory issue of The "Ledger", the Wake County Medical Society quarterly newsletter. The Ledger is the successor to the Wake County Physician Magazine, which offered long form articles. The Ledger is intended to keep you up to date with Society activities and news in a simple and straight forward fashion. In addition, the Ledger will also report events sponsored by the Wake County Medical Society Alliance, our partner in activities for Wake County physicians and their families. Members are invited to submit news of events open to and attended by local physicians and their families.

INTRODUCING Our New President, Douglas Homes, MD

Douglas Holmes, MD, has over 30 years experience providing expert ENT care in the military (retired USAF Colonel), academic (UNC-Chapel Hill), and private practice. After UNC-CH undergraduate and medical school, Dr. Holmes did his formal ENT training in Iowa and an intense fellowship year in pediatric ENT at Cincinnati Children's. He has been in private practice in Raleigh since 1993. He brings the highest level of dedication and expertise to his adult and pediatric patients and to the Wake County Medical Society as its 2019 president once again. Dr. Holmes also served as president during calendar year 2004.

Ken Ludwig's Baskerville:

A Sherlock Holmes Mystery

The male heirs of the Baskerville line are being eliminated one by one. To find their ingenious killer, Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson must brave the desolate moors before a family curse dooms its newest heir. Watch as the intrepid investigators try to escape a dizzying web of clues, silly accents, and elaborate disguises. Full of humor, horror, and plenty of stage magic, this kooky and spooky caper will have you howling with laughter.

We have secured a discount for purchases by members of the Wake County Medical Society or WCMS Alliance. Please quote "MED10" when purchasing your ticket via email or at the box office. Raleigh Little Theater, 919-821-3111, <https://raleighlittletheatre.secure.force.com/ticket/>

WCMS & WCMS Alliance Luncheon and Duke Gardens Tour

The Wake County Medical Society sponsored a luncheon and guided Duke Garden tour on the afternoon of April 7, 2019. The Garden is in full bloom at this very time of the year and is breathtaking to behold. A luncheon was served in the Duke Gardens elegant meeting complex with catering by Saladilia of Durham prior to the tour. Medical Society members and members of the WCMS Alliance attended the event along with their family members. A trolley vehicle was available for those needing assistance. It was a beautiful day for all.

Proclamation from Governor Roy Cooper

State of North Carolina

ROY COOPER
GOVERNOR

NATIONAL DOCTORS DAY

2019

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the practice of medicine is a special calling, and those who have chosen the medical profession serve their communities with a reverence for human life and individual dignity; and

WHEREAS, physicians, from the specialist to the general practitioner to those who have served or are serving in the Armed Forces, are dedicated to providing for the medical and health needs of every family and individual under their care; and

WHEREAS, physicians practicing in our state serve millions of North Carolinians through private practice, hospitals, research, and other health care facilities; and

WHEREAS, many physicians in North Carolina who are retired from practice continue to serve their communities in education and other areas; and

WHEREAS, physicians have engaged in years of study and training, often at great financial cost; most endure long and unpredictable hours, yet devote themselves to serving patients in hospitals and other facilities during some of the most critical moments of their lives; and

WHEREAS, research done by physicians produces tremendous breakthroughs in treating and curing life-threatening diseases; and

WHEREAS, students who attend North Carolina's medical schools train to become the next generation of leaders in medicine, instilled with the drive to solve even the greatest health care challenges in medicine; and

WHEREAS, the State of North Carolina recognizes and commends current and future physicians who strive every day to improve the health of all North Carolinians;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ROY COOPER, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim March 30, 2019, as "NATIONAL DOCTORS DAY" in North Carolina, and commend its observance to all citizens.

Roy Cooper
Governor

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina at the Capitol in Raleigh this twentieth day of March in the year of our Lord two thousand and nineteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and forty-second.
